"Austra's offer still open," so says an official of that country.

Sure. So is the Allies offer—and the one that will have to be accepted, too, before long.

"Huns jumpy because of their anxiety to know what is coming next.

To be sure, the Allies have kept the Huns on the jump for some weeks, now. The final jumping off place will be Berlin Germany officially admits great British success near St. Quentin.

How that news must be gall and wormwood to the kaiser—the contemptible British knocking the stuffing out of his invincible army.

Gen. Allenby cleaned up over 25,000 Turk prisoners the other day in Palestine by the River Jordan.

Gen. Allenby had a hauling-bee of Turks, to the tune of "One more river to cross"—the River of Jordan.

Enemy repulsed near "Ladies Walk," says a dispatch.

Evidently the Huns found it was no "cake-walk" around the "Ladies Walk."

Iron crosses have been freely distributed by the kaiser to his disheartened troops in the vicinity of Metz.

But the Huns have found to their cost that the charm doesn't work, and that the Yankee bullets mow them down all the same.

"British and French continue to make advance all along line" is the news every day.

And the Huns, too, are advancing all along the line every day—towards home.

Marriage

A very pretty and quiet wedding took place on Tuesday, Sept. 24th at 12:30 p.m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brownell, when Mrs. Edith L. McColem, of Nebr., was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Lee Carter, of Delia, Alta., by the Rev. Geo. Elliott. Only the members of the family and a few friends were present. After the ceremony the happy couple received congratulations, when all sat down to a bounteous repast. The happy couple left on the morning train for their home at Delia, which Mr. Carter had prepared. Their many friends wish them every happiness and prosperity.

The manufacturers of news print paper seem determined to hold up the Canadian newspaper men in the matter of prices. The first thing the manufacturers know the Canadian Press Association will be forming a joint stock company and making their own paper, for it is a well known fact that the average newspaper man is a wealthy individual.

A Small Building that Puts Money in Your Pocket every year

Every New Machine

you bought this year costs nearly or quite double what the same machine cost you three years ago.

Repairs for old machines are equally as high.

These new high costs cut into your profits no matter what you get for your products.

And a good deal of that high cost can be avoided. Your machines can be made to last and do good work for 3 to 5 years longer

A Simple Shed for Storage

A few pounds of grease, also a quart or two of paint will save the cost of the shed in one year or two at the outside.

The shed will last for years, and put a nice bunch of money into your bank account each year

Build it now and begin this cost cutting and profit-making at once.

Plans free—low figures on material and quick service.

Some "Saving" Sentences

Thrift Marksmen a Nation

Save for victory.

To save is the easiest of practices—if you have the will.

Pinch your expenditure a little and you'll find it will pay.

A dollar saved is a dollar earned

Save to lend to your country when it calls.

The will that saves is the will that wins.

Saving will provide both an umbrella and a mackintosh for the "rainy day."

Saving money is often the expression of saving grace.

Save to make Canada secure.

A man who is hovering on the verge of want is not his own master.

Save to save—both yourself and Canada.

Live within your means and your means will be increased.

If you don't live within your means you must live on the means of others.

The first dollar saved is often the first step on the road to affluence.

Heaven helps those who help themselves. Moral—Save!

Don't be a victim of circumstances: help to shape circumstances by saving.

Sacrifice a present pleasure for a future good—Save.

Save, remembering that to him that bath shall be given.

Saving carries its own reward—with interest.

Carnegie's chief asset in beginning life was his "saving" quality.

Saving the almighty dollar in order to gratify one's desires in the matter of personal purchases has been a working force in society for all time. To save for the sake of hoarding the golden dollars is a form of insanity that has afflicted the misers of all time. To save in order to make another stronger is the highest form of thrift known. And in exercising this virtue of laying aside extra dollars from our present surpluses, for the better living of society when times may not be so generous, we carry in us the marks of the true Canadian patriot.

He who loves his country is no waster. He knows his savings form the capital that makes business go. The dollar soon doubles itself and total savings of a thrifty people mark out the nation as a really great one. Love of our Canadian home land demands of every resident from the Yukon to Cape Breton, that he save his surplus dollars against a possible rainy day. The thrifty man is one of Canada's big patriots.

"Let Us Be One People"

Full of Determination to Fight Through to the End

This is a country which has faced great crises in the past. We hear about Ludendorff's hammer blows. Hammer blows crack and crumble poor material. Hammer blows harden and consolidate good material. There is good in British hearts. It has stood the test of centuries; it will stand this. So will that gallant people, that gallant great people across the channel who are fighting for the liberty and for the honor of their native land, and who are fighting without flinching. I have seen them. I never saw signs of wavering in any French face. (Cheers and cries of "Bravo, France.") They are full of courage, full of determination to fight through to the end, and France is more British than ever. So is Britain united. Unity and resolution are the two qualities we need. We have sunk our political differences. For the moment we have put those differences on one side. We have bigger things to think about. I am not despising the political controversies of the past. I am the last one to do that. I have taken a fair share of them. I have seen them. I have enjoyed them as well as anybody. In some form or other they may come again. It is of the very essence of freedom that we should have these controversies; but for the moment we have one purpose. In ordinary times you have small things; and those small things are the big things of life. The comfort you have in your homes, the color of the carpet, what wall paper you shall have—these are discussions about them, and worries, and perhaps disputes. But when you hear that a dam has burst up the valley and that a terrible flood is devastating your neighbor's fields, and destroying your neighbor's home, and is coming straight for you, you forget all those things, and you rush to stem the torrent. That is what we are doing now, and we have done it. We have done it again. When we have done it we shall begin again, but it will be with different problems, and we shall have to solve them. Meanwhile, let us be one people, one in name, one in resolution, one in courage, one in resolve, never to give an inch to the enemy, forty per cent, or 85,000,000 bushels.

If Miller's Worm Powders needed the support of testimonials, they could get it from the thousands of mothers who know the great virtue of this excellent medicine. But the powder will speak for itself, and in such a way that there can be no question of them. They act so quickly and so surely that the child to whom they are administered will show improvement from the first dose.

War Gardens in Canada

Enthusiastic Response to Appeal for Planting War Gardens in the West

Frederick Abraham, hon. chairman of the vacant lot and home garden section of the Canada food board, reports that there has been enthusiastic response to the appeal for the planting of war gardens throughout the west.

"The British Columbia war gardens could supply the war gardens with fresh vegetables for many months in the year," says Mr. Abraham. "The transportation problem could be solved. I believe this is only a question of time. Everything seems to grow in greater abundance in British Columbia, and many of the vegetables have two crops in the season."

Mr. Abraham reports that the school children of British Columbia have joined the school garden plot movement with splendid enthusiasm and the crop produced will make a material difference to the local supply.

There is no reason why farmers in the spring provinces of the prairie should not grow all the small fruit they require. They have also an excellent market for their surplus in the growing cities and towns.

Wild fruits grow abundantly in many parts of the country, and are used freely to make jam, preserves, etc.

These berries, which were grown in a few acres of the prairie, are of large and excellent flavor, and are valuable in which they compare very favorably with those which are imported from the coast in large quantities.

There is no doubt that with the further development of the country fruit growing will receive more attention than it has at present.

From the farmers of Western Canada. Horticultural societies exist at many points throughout the country, and exhibitions for the purpose of promoting the fruit growing industry are already engaged and stimulating the interest of others in this worthy enterprise.

MAKE PERFECT BREAD

Plenty of Room for War Service on Part of Town Girls

The women on the land at present number hundreds of thousands, without counting farmwives. The farmwives and the farmers' daughters have been hard at work all year; their day is never ended, milking, feeding poultry and pigs, butter making, and so on. They are also in charge of their own families, and in addition to that they have to help in the war in volunteering to help farmers' wives on the neighboring farms during harvest time. This would release the farmer's wife from her household duties and add her effective labor for outside work in aid of her husband and country. It would be hard to get it in his crops this year. Helping the farmer's wife this year is just as important as any other war work that women can take up.

When you get into a frame of mind that makes life seem one long struggle after another, with no pleasure in it; when all health seems to take all the joy out of life and when you are on the way to a general breakdown in health, this condition your health and happiness is worth fighting for and good, rich food makes a necessary system. It is a hopeless task to try to regulate your health while your blood is in such a state of general breakdown in health. And remember that no medicine can be of any use to you if it does not build up your weak, worn-out system.

Kitchener was right

when he said—

"Either the Civilian population must go short of many things to which it is accustomed in times of peace or our armies must go short of munitions and other things indispensable to them."

NOW, the only way we can possibly live up to that obligation is by going without in order that our soldiers may have. For the money we waste is not money at all—it is equipment, clothing, shot and shell that are urgently needed in France. By denying ourselves, therefore, we enable Canada to procure to the fullest extent the materials and labor which she and our Allies need for the successful prosecution of the war.
What happens when we fail to save?
A pull on labor by the Government in one direction and a pull on labor by the people in the opposite direction. Hundreds of millions of dollars are of no use to the country if goods and services can be secured only to the extent of eighty millions of dollars. So we must do everything in our power to release both goods and labor for the purposes for which Canada needs them.

WHETHER it be food, coal, wool, steel, leather, labor or transportation, the result in all cases is the same. Whoever competes with the nation by freely satisfying his own desires, selfishly appropriates to his own use that which is so urgently required for our fighting men in France.

For the sake of your country and the boys "over there," spend cautiously. Think of what Lord Kitchener has said, and ask yourself, "Is this something I really need or can I do without it?"

Important to Nov. 1 Draftees

Registrar Carson's office specially desires to point out that farmers who have been granted exemption until Nov. 1 should not attempt to dispose of their business in the belief that they will be called up for military service at the expiration of that time. The date specified is only for review purposes. It should be clearly understood that if a farmer can prove on November 1 that he has been a producer he will be allowed a further exemption until June, when he will have to report to the registrar his progress for the season.

Earl Rains Boggess, a farmer in the Youngstown district, was killed on Sept. 17, by the overturning of a trail disc harrow. Boggess was working alone at the time he met his death, his body being found by his brother, who reported the accident to the police.

The Turks defeat in Palestine wasn't a very pleasant time for the Armenian butchers.

There are many people who praise God from whom all blessings flow and then proceed to waste them.

Every time you buy a thing you do not need you interfere with Canada's war work. Every dollar you spend on things not strictly necessary is a dollar not merely wasted but used to employ labor on things that have nothing to do with our efforts to win the war for freedom.

In England they say: A shilling wasted stabs a soldier in the back."

Don't administer your finances on the come-easy, go-easy plan. Save.

The ladies aid will hold a sale of home-made cooking, and also an apron sale, in Woodruff's store on Saturday, Sept. 28th. Tea will also be served from 2.30 p.m.

Some twenty or more from here attended the concert given in Bussard's hall by the choir of the Cereal Methodist church, last Friday evening, and very much enjoyed the excellent program. Proceeds between $40 and $50.

Train service on this line was somewhat dislocated on Tuesday morning for about twelve hours, through some derailed freight cars about half a mile west of Chinook. A second wreck occurred the same morning near Hanna.

In our item last week we were somewhat in error regarding the time the herd law was suspended Nov. 1st, we understand, is the time provided, but it can come in force earlier by a majority of the ratepayers in a township in a petition to the council. A special meeting of the Spounding Creek council to be held on Saturday next, Sept. 28th, to receive such petitions.

L. E. Ormond, Chinook has been appointed registrar for this district for the registration of all American citizens who are called up under the present military draft by the United States government. All such must register before October 12th, 1918. An office being opened in Chinook will do away with the necessity of the men going to Calgary to register, and also save both time and expense.

Last week end, Rufus Davis, son of J. M. Davis, of Coltholme met with a serious accident, that might easily have terminated fatally. He was working the mower, when the team of horses ran away, and the lad was thrown on the guard. After running a considerable distance, about the field the horses ran into the fence, knocking down some of the posts, when they finally broke loose. The lad was badly cut and bruised about the legs and body. Very providentially the machine was out of gear at the time, or there is no knowing what might have happened.

The Bobby and His Pay

A case which created much interest was tried here before M. J. Hewitt, J.P., this week. The Youngstown local bobby was suing that village council for a month's salary, the village council having fired him on the spot, without making any provision for his next month's pay. But the council contended that they could dispense with the services of the bobby without dispensing his salary. Griffiths & Co. of Youngstown, represented the defendants and Barrister Ormond of Chinook, for the plaintiff. The plaintiff's case was heard, but the defendant refused to give any evidence, contending that the case closed, and asked for a dismissal. This didn't suit the J.P.'s views, however. When the dismissal wasn't forthcoming, the defendant was willing to tell his side of the bobby story, under strong protest from the plaintiff's solicitor, as the case was closed. After a lengthy legal argument, the case proceeded, and then the defendant asked for a non-suit. At the close the magistrate reserved judgment, as one or two nice legal points had been raised Canada will resume ordinary time at 2 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 27th. All clocks will, at that hour, be put back 60 minutes.

Mrs. Uglan of Saskatoon is showing the latest things in millinery at Miller's store, Friday and Saturday, this week.

MONEY TO LOAN

Osler, Hammond and Nanton, general agents for North of Scotland, and other Mortgage Companies have $30,000,000 invested in farm loans in the West, the returns from which they re-invest in the same way. They have lots of money now. Their inspector, Mr. Stickney, who was in the district a few days ago, says "They have barrels of money, and that no good loan will be refused." Let them renew the loan you have on your homestead, and give you more on your pre-emption, give you money to prove it up if you wish. Or let them give you a new loan, as large, and probably larger, than you can get elsewhere. The district needs all the money we can get hold of in this way. Pay up your indebtedness to the bank, to the municipality, to the school, and to others. We can furnish the money. Loans for five years, repayable in three years, without extra charge. Interest at 8 per cent.—nothing but the interest to pay each year.

Agent, Chinook
